

BENEFITS OF JOINING GoLD

- Business stamp of approval via our member certification process - giving you professional credibility and ensuring the public of your standard of excellence.
- Use of the GoLD branding to acknowledge your professional credibility.
- Listing on the GoLD Website Directory including your own Gallery Page.
- Promotion of members through exposure on our Homepage and Facebook site.
- Access to interactive discussion forum encouraging knowledge sharing and problem solving between members.
- Opportunity to meet and network with green industry professionals via informative talks and networking events.
- Access to arbitration procedures and disciplinary board should it be required.
- Access to business related forms and committee documents.
- Access to supplier information.
- Access to green industry related information and latest news.
- Subscription to a quarterly newsletter.
- Promotion of members through exposure in our quarterly newsletter.
- Annual Garden Design Awards to inspire healthy competition amongst the members.
- Organised trips to Show Gardens and design related events in Gauteng to encourage design related discussions.
- Opportunity to serve on the committee and be involved with its various operations.
- Participation in the mentor/men-tee program with LGDA members.